Air Freight

In this critical and time sensitive arena we understand the paramount need for reliability. We are committed to service excellence where urgency and accuracy come as standard. Value, attention to detail and a proactive approach are all part of Horizon's promise to you.

We work closely with all our customers to clearly identify their requirements in order to find the most cost-effective solutions. By their very nature, most airfreight consignments are highly time sensitive and we provide a full range of express and direct services on all routes. However, when time allows and alternative solutions are available, we can offer deferred and consolidated services to align cost with deadlines.

As a certified AEO, C-TPAT and TAPA member and an approved Department for Transport agent, we comply fully with all security regulations. We also actively monitor developments to assure our continued compliance with all appropriate legislation.

Through Horizon's tried and tested global network we will provide secure and carefully managed freight movements from door to door. We know that it is not just our reputation which is 'on the line'!
